Legacy Celebration Heightens Homecoming Spirit
Penn State Homecoming hosted its 3rd Annual Legacy Celebration

University Park, Pa. (Apr. 24, 2013) — After a long semester of preparation, Penn State Homecoming hosted its 3rd Annual Legacy Celebration in the HUB-Robeson Center from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. The event was intended to raise school spirit and get students excited for Homecoming in the fall.

Legacy Celebration had many events, including the annual revealing of the Honorary Grand Marshal, Anne Ard, and the cutting of the Homecoming cake. Several student organizations, including Volé, Urban Dance Troupe, and Glee Club, performed throughout the day. The THON 2013 line dance was also performed by the Morale Captains.

“Legacy celebrates many aspects of Penn State,” said Pride Events Director Frank Jones, who organized the event. “It shows what we’ve accomplished as a university and what we will continue to accomplish in the future.”

Whether they were passing through on their way to class, watching their friends perform, or eating lunch, students stopped to admire and participate in the celebration.

Reflecting on the day, Alumni Relations Director Jessica Javage said, “Everything went really well. [Legacy Celebration] was a demonstration of how excited the Homecoming Committees are internally and how it is reflecting externally. It is a good look at the type of energy we hope to have in the fall.”

Homecoming week begins on Sunday, October 6th, with the Homecoming football game falling on Saturday, October 12th.
